

Panic, Hunger Rife in Northern Cities of Dominican State

Earthquakes Continue in Republic Seventh Day; Need Food, Medicine

Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Panic spread through the northern provinces of this battered country today, with hunger threatening the weary population as the result of a six-day ordeal of earthquakes and tidal waves which have killed 73 persons and left 20,000 homeless.

With earth tremors of varying intensity jarring the terrain throughout the republic about every five minutes, fear has gripped the inhabitants, particularly about Bahia Escocesa (Scotch Bay) in the northern part of the island, where there is great apprehension that violent shocks will strike again.

Not a single inhabitant remains in the shattered coastal towns of Matanzas, Puerto Plata, Batey, Samana and Sanchez where there was a swift evacuation following Sunday's earthquakes. Many refugees from the destroyed towns are living in trees and caves in nearby hills. The Red Cross has set up refugee camps in the northern provinces, but present accommodations are not sufficient for the thousands of homeless.

Town Washed Away
(Travelers arriving in San Juan, Puerto Rico, from the Dominican Republic, said virtually all the houses in Matanzas, which had a population of 1,000, were washed away by the tidal wave and that the destruction was equally severe in Julia Molina and San Francisco de Macoris.)

Attempts by the government to push food to the stricken areas have been seriously hampered by the washing out of roads and bridges by flooded rivers. The food shortage is particularly acute around Bahia Escocesa, where there is also an acute need of

Kids Rule Fair on Annual Youth Day

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Teen-age boys and girls who have waited eagerly all year for the opportunity proudly paraded today with sleek farm animals at the Illinois state fair.

This was Youth Day at the fair, and most attention was focused on the 4-H club and Future Farmer youth's competition for a slice of the large cash premiums offered in junior department beef calves judging.

More than 800 youths from about 50 counties already have entered the junior stock contests, which run most of the 10 day fair.

An accordion band contest, an army military display, barrow judging and a home economics demonstration were some other features on the second day program.

Many of the farm girls attending the exposition's junior department school were occupied with clothing revues, modeling trim dresses, play suits and other inexpensive garments tailored at home. Blue ribbons went to the winners.

Judging also continued in culinary, art, educational and a variety of other exhibits.

The entertainment program listed the WLS Barn Dance to-night in front of the grandstand, with Roy Rogers, movie cowboy star, sharing the billing.

Fair officials announced that 55,000 persons were on hand yesterday for the opening of the 90th state fair.

They predict a crowd of 800,000 Sunday for the full day competition among drum and bugle corps, military bands, and drill teams.

Methodists Ask U. S. to Free All Objectors

Harvey, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—President Truman has been asked by the Lexington conference of the Methodist church to grant immediately a general amnesty "to all conscientious objectors and other war resisters" imprisoned for alleged violation of the Selective Service act.

A letter to the president followed an unanimous vote yesterday by the conference, which includes churches in Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Indiana.

The letter said that imprisonment of conscientious objectors and other war resisters was "paradoxical in light of the fact that amnesty has been granted to political prisoners in every country in the world, including Germany, Japan and Italy."

6-Horse Hitch of — Suffolk Horses Is Pride of Dixonite

Delbert L. Wolber, route 3, Dixon, six years ago started raising pure bred horses on his farm as a pastime. He chose the Suffolk, an English strain of horses and now has eight of these fine animals, two of which are colts. In addition to raising the horses Wolber originated an idea of showing the animals and has developed a fine six-horse hitch, which will be shown at two county fairs in this section this fall, the Ogle county fair at Oregon and the Whiteside county fair at Morrison.

Two of the Suffolks which comprise the lead team are brother and sister while the second team is mother and son. One of the pole horses is a pure-bred Suffolk stallion which was imported from England. The combined weight of the six horses is more than 10,000 pounds. One of the mares used on the hitch and the imported stallion were grand champions at both the Whiteside and Ogle county fairs last season.

Withdraws from State Fair
Wolber had entered his six-horse hitch at the Springfield state fair but was forced to withdraw his entry when he suffered an infection in his right hand which incapacitated him from driving. He plans to exhibit at other fairs in this section this fall.

The wagon to which the six big animals are hitched, was purchased at a sale several months ago. It was a former horse-drawn Red Cross ambulance used in World War I, and he removed the body and using the running gear, built a new body which is adaptable for his purpose. The six-horse hitch is an unusual and interesting attraction and the horses are attired in special hand built harness, which is the handwork of Tommy Tumlin of the Dixon Leather Shop, one of the few active harness makers in northern Illinois.

Wilmette Pair Killed in Pleasure Plane Crash

Forked River, N. J., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Donald Kimball, 32, of Wilmette, Ill., and his sister, Mrs. Helene Winans, 23, wife of the manager of a private airport here, were killed last night when the small Fairchild plane Kimball was piloting crashed in a meadow on the New Jersey state game farm.

The victims' mother is Mrs. T. Welter Kimball of Winnetka, whose husband, a partner in Gloré, Forgan & Company, investment bankers, died in Aug., 1944.

State Trooper Frank A. Boyer said the plane had taken off for a short flight from the airport only a few minutes before it crashed. He said it "apparently had developed engine trouble."

Maritime Union Ready for Wage Fight Talks

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Representatives of the CIO National Maritime union shaped revised proposals today for settlement of a wage-hour dispute which threatens a strike next Monday against dry cargo shipping on the Great Lakes.

At the request of government conciliators, the NMMU agreed to present the proposals at an afternoon joint meeting with the Bethlehem Transportation corporation, one of 14 companies involved.

The negotiations involve 44 vessels and 1,100 men.

Presbyterian Sunday Schools Are Larger

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A gain of 35,897 members in Sunday school enrollment during the past year is reported by the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A.

The architectural firm of Smith, Kranz & Strong of Urbana is preparing the plans and specifications.

The Dixon board of education has received assurance of the Illinois Postwar Planning Commission that two grants have been approved for use in constructing new schools in this city. About one-half of the federal loan has been received.

Molotov Walks Out on Paris Meeting; Albania Is Problem

Greece Opposes Bid to Albanians; Russia Favors Move

Paris, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov stalked out of a session of the Paris peace conference today as Premier Constantin Tsaldaris of Greece mentioned the Russian diplomat by name and waved a manuscript in his general direction during heated debate on the question of whether to invite Albania to the conference.

Molotov left the chamber in similar fashion yesterday when Tsaldaris was speaking, as he was today, in opposition to the Yugoslav proposal that Albania be invited to the peace negotiations with a "consultative" voice.

Spurns Greek's Talk
Molotov remained away throughout the remainder of Tsaldaris' address and the two translations of it which followed.

At the time of Molotov's departure, Tsaldaris was declaring that the inviting powers had not "wished to carry their generosity toward former enemies" too far. "They recognized the dangers of such a policy," he said. "Mr. Molotov recalled that the other day in the rules committee in this fashion: 'Impunity in such a case and the refusal to defend the legitimate rights of states which suffered from aggression—there is something which has nothing in common with the interests of a just and durable peace and something which can only benefit those who prepare new aggressions and follow their imperialistic rapacious ends.'"

Contradicts Ukrainian
Tsaldaris also criticized a statement of the Ukrainian delegate, Dmitri Manuilsky, yesterday that Albania had made "an important contribution to the allies" as "completely contrary to the truth."

"Mr. Manuilsky, conscious perhaps of the feebleness of his argument on this point, tried with an effort of the imagination to give the resistance of the Albanian people against the armies

Murray on Stand in Own Defense

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Donald R. Murray was ready today to tell a Criminal court jury the events leading up to the fatal shooting last May 27 of a Canadian army officer whom he found in a loop hotel room with his wife.

The 41-year-old salesman who is on trial before a jury of four men and eight women on a charge of murdering Maj. John R. Fletcher, 46, will be the last witness for the defense, said his attorney, Charles A. Bellows.

The state, which in opening arguments asked for the death penalty, rested yesterday. The case is expected to be given the jury late today.

Murray has refused to see or communicate with his wife, Doris, 38, since the night of the shooting, and it was not disclosed whether she would be called as a defense witness. She has not appeared in the courtroom since the trial opened.

Policeman Benjamin Benson, one of the state's last witnesses testified yesterday that Murray told him that he went into Fletcher's room with a gun "in his hand" and fired when the army officer lunged at him.

"He said he then looked to the left and saw his wife without a stitch on," Benson testified. "When I asked him why he shot Fletcher, he replied, 'What would you do if you found your best friend in a hotel room with your wife?'"

Six Persons Killed in Crash of Planes

Great Falls, Mont., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Army authorities today were engaged in the grim task of completing identification of the charred bodies of six persons killed when two attack bombers collided during an airshow Friday before 20,000 horrified spectators at the North Montana state fair.

Two of the dead, killed when a plane hurtled into a racehorse barn, were identified as Lt. Arthur Pelletier, Cleveland Ohio and Dorothy Mae Szabo of Belt, Mont., a Montana State University student.

An Army investigating panel from the Great Falls Air Base launched an inquiry into the accident.

Two persons in the vicinity of the horsebarns when the plane struck were treated for shock and burns. They were Herbert Taylor, 45, Fayette, Idaho, burns on arms and legs, and Joseph Bouman, Jordan, Mont., shock.

Nineteen Horses Dead
Eight automobiles parked by the structure were demolished as the plane ripped through the flimsy timber.

Three of the twin-engine medium bombers were flying low over a grandstand packed with fairgoers when, eyewitnesses said, a wing from one of the planes apparently sheared off the tail of the other. The third plane swung away, undamaged.

One of the planes burst into flame and crashed into the horsebarn, filled with racehorses. The other sped crazily on, flaming as it dug into the earth a mile away. The barn flared and the screams of burning horses brought near-panic to the crowd, averted by Army and civilian personnel. Seventeen of the animals perished in the flames, and two others were so badly injured they were destroyed.

Fairgrounds employees fought the barn fire and helped take the bodies of the dead from the smoking ruins.

Envoys Report Peace in China Is Impossible

Nanking, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A complete cessation of hostilities in all of China "appears impossible," U. S. Ambassador John Leighton Stuart and President Envoy George C. Marshall said today in an unprecedented joint statement.

This four prediction came after lengthy conferences the two Americans have held with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and the chief Communist negotiator, Gen. Chou En-Lai, both here and at the summer capital, Kuling.

It came on the heels of an announcement by the U. S. Marines in North China that armed Chinese again had fought a gun battle with Marines, the second in 11 days. This latest clash was at Lutai, in Hupeh province, where four Marine guards riding in the caboose of a coal train blown up by Chinese held off 50 attackers until rescued.

Wesleyan Asks Aid in Handling Big Demand

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 10.—(AP)—William E. Shaw, president, said today he had applied for federal aid to enable Illinois Wesleyan university to handle the greatest enrollment in its history this fall.

The application was made in accordance with provisions of the emergency educational facilities program, passed by congress. In a telegram to Roland C. Ashton of Chicago, head of the fourth division of the national administration of the program, Shaw said Wesleyan was planning to enroll 1,000 students this fall and at least half would be veterans.

The university had facilities for 750 students until a fire destroyed 15 classrooms in 1943, Shaw said.

City Operation of — Mausoleum Is Plea

Two of the remaining officers of the Oakwood Memorial mausoleum association, Mrs. Viola Strub, treasurer, and Ralph Salzman, secretary, appeared before the Dixon city commission at the regular weekly meeting last evening with a request that the city take over and operate the mausoleum in Oakwood cemetery. The officers represented that the association is unable to operate the mausoleum because of insufficient funds. City Attorney Gerald Jones will investigate the advisability of the city taking over and operating the mausoleum.

A local improvement ordinance including extension of sanitary sewers on Assembly Place, Institute boulevard, Academy and Cooper streets in the northeast section of the city, was submitted to the council and will be open for public inspection at the office of City Clerk Wayne C. Smith until next Friday when it will be presented for passage. Bills against the city amounting to $8,624.85 were read and ordered paid.

Bilbo Reveals His Klan Membership in Air Interview

Not in Sympathy With It on All Points; Senator Tells Newsmen

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Sen. Theodore "The Man" Bilbo (D-Miss) told a nation-wide radio audience last night that he is a member of the Ku Klux Klan although "not in sympathy with some of the things in it."

"I am a member of the Ku Klux Klan No. 40, called the Bilbo Klan No. 40, Mississippi," the senator said in answer to a question by Lawrence Spivak of the American Mercury.

"I attended one meeting and have not attended it since, because I was not in sympathy with some of the things in it," he added.

Bilbo declared he could get Klan "support" now because "no man can leave the Klan. He takes an oath not to do that. Once a Ku Klux, always a Ku Klux."

The senator was interviewed by four newspaper and magazine correspondents in the Mutual Broadcasting System network show, "Meet the Press." The interviewers were Ernest K. Lindley of Newsweek, Cecil B. Dickson of Gannett Publications, Bert Andrews of the New York Herald Tribune and Spivak.

Under questioning by Spivak, Bilbo declared that "I am not informed that the Ku Klux Klan as I know it is seeking to undermine the government."

Condemns "Lynch Law"

He said he was "not advised" what the Klan stands for at present but "I heard Gov. Talmadge tell some newspaper last Friday night, they could find out all about it by consulting Gov. Arnall of Georgia. He is a member and received a plaque award as a member."

He said the Klan would not, however, support Arnall because "no traitor of the organization, or any Klan, ever got any support." Bilbo denied that he believed in "lynch law" and said that in eight years as governor of Mississippi "I did everything in my power to do away with lynch law in my state."

Andrews then asked him about the statement he was reported to have made during the recent campaign.

Chinese Ambush Train and Guards

Peiping, China, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Four United States Marines last night held off approximately 50 Chinese who ambushed a coal train guarded by a Marine detachment. Marine headquarters announced today. No Marines were injured, but two Chinese casualties were reported.

The armed Chinese band detonated charges which derailed the engine and eight cars of a 25-car coal train on the Peiping-Mukden railroad about three miles north of Lutai, which is some 60 miles northeast of Tientsin.

The coal train was bound from Kuyeh to Tanku, a port due east of Tientsin. The Chinese opened fire on the caboose immediately after the explosions, the Marine announcement said. Four Marine guards riding in the caboose returned the fire.

Air reconnaissance this morning showed four coal cars were demolished and about 30 feet of track destroyed.

Observers here said the attackers undoubtedly were Communists. High government officials warned shortly after the July 29 clash at Anping that the United States could expect further Communist attacks on Marines in North China. That ambush, and the kidnapping of seven Marines a fortnight earlier, they termed the beginning of a concerted attempt by Communists to force the Marines out of China.

Maj. Gen. Keller F. Rokey, Marine commandant, meantime denied Communist charges that central government troops were with the Marine truck convoy which was ambushed July 29.

Chicago Divorce Judge Observes Anniversary as 'Good Samaritan'

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Judge Joseph Sabath, who has heard an estimated 100,000 divorce cases during his 30 years on the Superior court bench and says he has effected about 6,500 reconciliations, observed his 58th wedding anniversary yesterday by attempting reconciliation of three estranged couples.

The three couples planning divorce were called into his chambers and, he said, in all three "amicables" were arranged which may salvage the unions.

A few years ago Judge Sabath "guessed" that about 75 percent of his reconciliations "stuck," but yesterday he declined to venture an estimate.

"As divorce judge, I don't hear from them again if it works out," the 76-year-old judge said, "and I have no way of checking up."

He listed the lack of money as the number one source of trouble with married couples. Then, in order, he listed liquor, in-laws "who mean well but fail to realize son or daughter is grown up," and jealousy.

Judge Sabath and his wife, Regina, have three children, eight grand-children and four great-grandchildren.

Britain Will Warn World Immigration of Jews Must Stop

London, Aug. 10.—(AP)—An authoritative Whitehall source said today Britain would warn the world next week that ships of any nation, suspected of carrying illegal Zion-seeking immigrants from Europe, may be intercepted, searched and arrested by units of the Royal navy.

The warning will come in an official cabinet statement on Palestine policy which will outline plans to effect a European clamp-down on illegal Jewish immigration.

A spokesman at a foreign office news conference today said he could not comment on the reported British intention to intercept or search ships flying foreign colors, "as this will be dealt with in a statement to be issued shortly."

The foreign office declined to say whether Britain already had conveyed its intentions regarding shipping to any individual foreign powers.

"That, too, will be dealt with in the forthcoming statement," the spokesman declared.

Two Replies Favorable

The British government, he added, was "pleased" with the measures being taken by the French and Italian governments to stop illegal immigration at its sources. The Soviet government, he said, had conveyed an oral reply to British representations but he would not indicate whether this was "favorable."

No information was available on the attitude of the Polish or Czech governments either, he said.

In Jerusalem, an authority predicted today that "things in Palestine will get worse before they get better."

"Immigration is the key to the future, at least the immediate future of Palestine," this source told AP correspondent Carter L. Davidson. "If the British stop it the Jews will cause trouble. If they let it continue there will be trouble with the Arabs, and it must come within weeks."

This authority expressed belief there was "little likelihood" any Jewish immigrant ships would be diverted to Cyprus by the British navy. He declined comment on the possibility that Cyprus might become Palestine's "Ellis Island," with all immigrant ships required to dock there as a requisite for entry into Palestine.

Adding to the confused situation, a dispatch from Nicosia, Cyprus, said the Carabias detention camp was being prepared amid reports that the first batch of illegal immigrants to Palestine were due on Cyprus Monday.

Three Gunmen Hijack Liquor Near Rockford

Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—State police at suburban Blue Island today were searching for three armed men who U. F. Dewall of Rockford said hijacked his load of 150 cases of liquor yesterday.

Police said Dewall told them he was stopped about 20 miles from Rockford, by a trio in a "light car" and was forced into the car where he was bound with adhesive tape. He said one of the men drove his truck to Blue Island, where the liquor was unloaded and Dewall released.

Bus Leaves Highway, Five Passengers Hurt

LaGrange, Ind., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Five persons were injured and sent to a hospital and 30 others received minor cuts and bruises in a bus accident early today. The Greyhound bus, on route from Chicago to New York, ran off U.S. highway 20 at the west edge of LaGrange.

The five persons who were hurt most seriously were taken to a Sturgis, Mich., hospital and the others were treated by LaGrange physicians. There were 37 passengers on the bus.

The vehicle, driven by Walter Paul Pircher, 26, of Chicago, left the pavement and struck two trees, Sheriff Dwight Hostetler said.

Record Food Crop Hikes Production of Livestock Products

Huge Wheat Crop Might Allow Cancellation of Flour Restrictions

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—An Agriculture department report forecasting the largest crop of food and feed grains in the country's history opened the way today for heavier than expected production of livestock products.

Corn and wheat crops far outstripping previous records, together with large crops of oats and barley, were indicated on the basis of conditions prevailing Aug. 1.

If these grains turn out as now forecast, farmers would have the most liberal feed supply per farm animal in history.

Predict New Record

A few months ago, when grain supplies were insufficient to meet demands of hungry areas abroad and to maintain a high level of livestock production in this country, the government called upon farmers to produce fewer hogs and chickens and to sell meat animals at lighter weights.

The department's August crop report issued yesterday said this year's aggregate production of crops promises to be unprecedented—3 per cent above the 1942 record and 27 per cent above the 1923-32 average.

Major contributions would include record crops of corn, wheat, tobacco, peaches, plums and truck crops; near-record crops of oats, rice, peanuts, potatoes, pears, grapes, cherries, and sugarcane; and average or better crops of hay, soybeans, dry peas, prunes, apricots, and sugar beets.

Smaller than average crops were indicated only for cotton, rye, grain sorghums, dry beans, buckwheat, and sweet potatoes.

Huge Wheat Crop
Particularly pleasing to officials is the prospect of a wheat crop of 1,160,366,000 bushels, about 37,000,000 bushels more than last year's record. This may permit easing of restrictions on the grinding of flour for domestic consumption and possibly some increase in allocations of grains for whiskey.

The department predicted a corn crop of 3,496,820,000 bushels. This compares with the record 1944 crop of 3,203,000,000 bushels and with last year's 3,018,000,000.

The crop would exceed this forecast by upwards of 200,000,000 bushels if the relationship between the August estimate and the final estimate bears the same relationship of the last ten years between the August and final figures. In this ten-year period, the August estimate has

DeKalb Firm Adds New Division With Recent Purchases

Will Produce Feeds and Seeds for Farmers of Northern Illinois

This morning T. E. Courtney, President of the Northern Illinois Corporation, DeKalb, announced that beginning July 1 the Corporation had added another division to their operation, which is in keeping with their constructive diversification policy. The assets and business of Swanson-Planbeck Company, Rockford, manufacturers of farm feeds, Pell-Bari Farms, Incorporated, Woodstock, Ill., growers and processors of farm seed and the two grain elevators, lumber and farm implement business of Smith-Sheaff of Holcomb, Ill., were purchased. Plans have already been formulated for future extensive developments in this field of feed and seed for every type of farmer. This combination business gives rise to the new division which immediately becomes one of the largest processors of small grain seed in the country.

Seeds will be known as Pell-Bari Seeds while the feed will be known as Field Crest Feeds. Each truck in the fleet will carry the trade marks of each—an Indian head for Pell-Bari and a green and white shield for Field Crest. This new operation coupled with that of the dairy division of the company, which is located in the former Star-Line dairy barn just north of Harvard on Route 14, will provide a quite rounded program for the farmer. Seed for his grain and if he wishes he can contract for his surplus oats, barley and soybeans to be sold to Northern Illinois Corporation for seed or for grain to be made into feed for his chickens, hogs, dairy and feeder cattle.

It is their feeling and probably everyone's if they have lived in or know northern Illinois that it is the garden spot of the world. There is no reason why Illinois should not produce, manufacture and sell within its own boundaries a large proportion of the livestock feeds now being shipped into the state. The future should develop this area into one of the biggest if not the largest source for small grain and soy bean seed. This will automatically give the farmer a better income which increases his buying power that will be of benefit to everyone doing business within the state.

As Mr. Courtney outlined in the story—the big reason Northern Illinois Corporation is diversifying in the agricultural field is that they believe prosperity is closely allied with farming. Almost everything that is worth while comes from the ground. The company wants to help improve seeds and feed for the farmer. Northern Illinois is a big farming area and farm income helps to maintain the whole income of the territory.

The new division will be under the management of George Pellegrin and Vincent Casey, both of Woodstock. Mr. Pellegrin has been associated with the seed business ever since he was graduated from the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin and was the founder of Pell-Bari Farms. Mr. Casey was connected with Production Credit up until the time he left for service. Upon returning to civilian life he and Mr. Pellegrin joined together in the operation of Pell-Bari Farms. They will be assisted in the feed department by Mark Swanson, who was president of Swanson-Planbeck, and outside of the time spent in the Navy he has been active in the making and selling of quality farm feeds.

Interests Are Diversified

The south elevator in Holcomb will be continued in the same manner, that is a grain outlet with a complete farm store for service to the farming area. The incoming grain will be used to help fill channels of supply for both the feed and seed operations. The North elevator will be used exclusively as a station for procuring and processing grain for seed. Equipment has already been purchased to transform the location into a modern seed operation.

Both Mr. F. Smith and Mr. R. Sheaff have entered the picture with the company. After taking a well earned vacation this fall it is very possible that they will join the actual operations of the agricultural division.

The assets of Swanson-Planbeck include a modern all concrete grain elevator with a three story brick and a one story warehouse, located at 600-604 Cedar street, Rockford. At least for awhile all feed processing will be done at this plant while the seed work will be handled in Woodstock. Accounting and general management will remain in DeKalb.

This is not the first time the Northern Illinois Corporation has gone into fields that were thought to be foreign to their knowledge. During World War II the company operated for the Government of the axis a significance and importance which only the distance between the Ukraine and Albania can explain," Tsaldaris said.

Joseph Korbel, Czechoslovakia delegate, declared that "in our opinion Albania was during the war and now is de facto an ally" and of solidarity in the Mediterranean area to hear the words of Albania.

The Czechoslovak delegation introduced a resolution inviting Albania "to state her point of view, at the plenary session and at the appropriate commissions regarding the peace treaty with Italy in which she is interested."

Hit at Greek Policy

Tsaldaris took the floor after Poland had supported the Yugoslav proposal to invite Albania and Britain had demanded that the question be turned over to a committee, along with proposed invitations to Cuba, Egypt and Mexico.

Mosha Jijade, Yugoslav delegate, said Greek "policy always has been to foment and start war in the Balkans" and to divide Albania. He asserted that Tsaldaris had "suggested to me that Albania should be divided between Greece and Yugoslavia."

"He called this a realistic policy," the Yugoslav delegate said. Jijade said the Greek idea was to "eliminate Albania from the map."

Tsaldaris Protests

"In answer I can only say this: an independent Albanian, far from being a menace, is necessary for the stability of the Balkans and especially of Yugoslavia."

Tsaldaris protested, declaring: "It is exact that the Greeks proposed the division of Albania. Greek sources suggested that Jijade was referring to a meeting which took place Thursday between Esadalis and Edvard Kardelj, chief of the Yugoslav delegation. At this meeting, the Greek sources said, Tsaldaris brought up Greece's claim to the northern Epirus, to which Kardelj reserved his opinion, and Kardelj asked for Greek support of the Yugoslav claim to Trieste. Tsaldaris, it was said, made no commitment on this point."

Day By Day On the Air

by O. E. BUTTERFIELD

(Central Daylight Saving Time)

New York, Aug. 10.—"The very thing that made the radio in the beginning isn't there anymore," one of my braintrusters complained the other day. "Music was the thing people liked. The good programs were all music—with a few comedians—the A & P Gypsies, the Chiquito Club Eskimos, the Atwater Kent Hour. Now it's all talk and you can't listen to that stuff all the time."

The critic wonders if the networks are holding back on music purposely. "Maybe" he reasons, "they think Petrillo might pull all the musicians out sometime and leave the network boys high and dry."

Some sports notes: ABC will get the jump on CBS' exclusive broadcast of the 10th annual All-American soap box derby on August 18 in Akron, Ohio, by broadcasting a dramatization of the 13-year-old affair on the Sports Review Wednesday, August 14, at 9 p. m. Bill Downs will call the final heat at 3:45 Sunday afternoon, August 18.

The 42nd running of the Hopeful Stakes, a Saratoga feature race in which the top two-year-olds of the country are expected to participate, will be broadcast Saturday, August 31 at 3 p. m. by Clem McCarthy on NBC.

Princeton Suffers $100,000 Fire . . . W. E. Wood Retires From C. & N. W. Railroad

Princeton suffered a $100,000 fire loss on Wednesday of this week when the Illinois Yeast Co. property was completely destroyed. The plant was owned and operated by William Enright and manufactured yeast for commercial purposes.

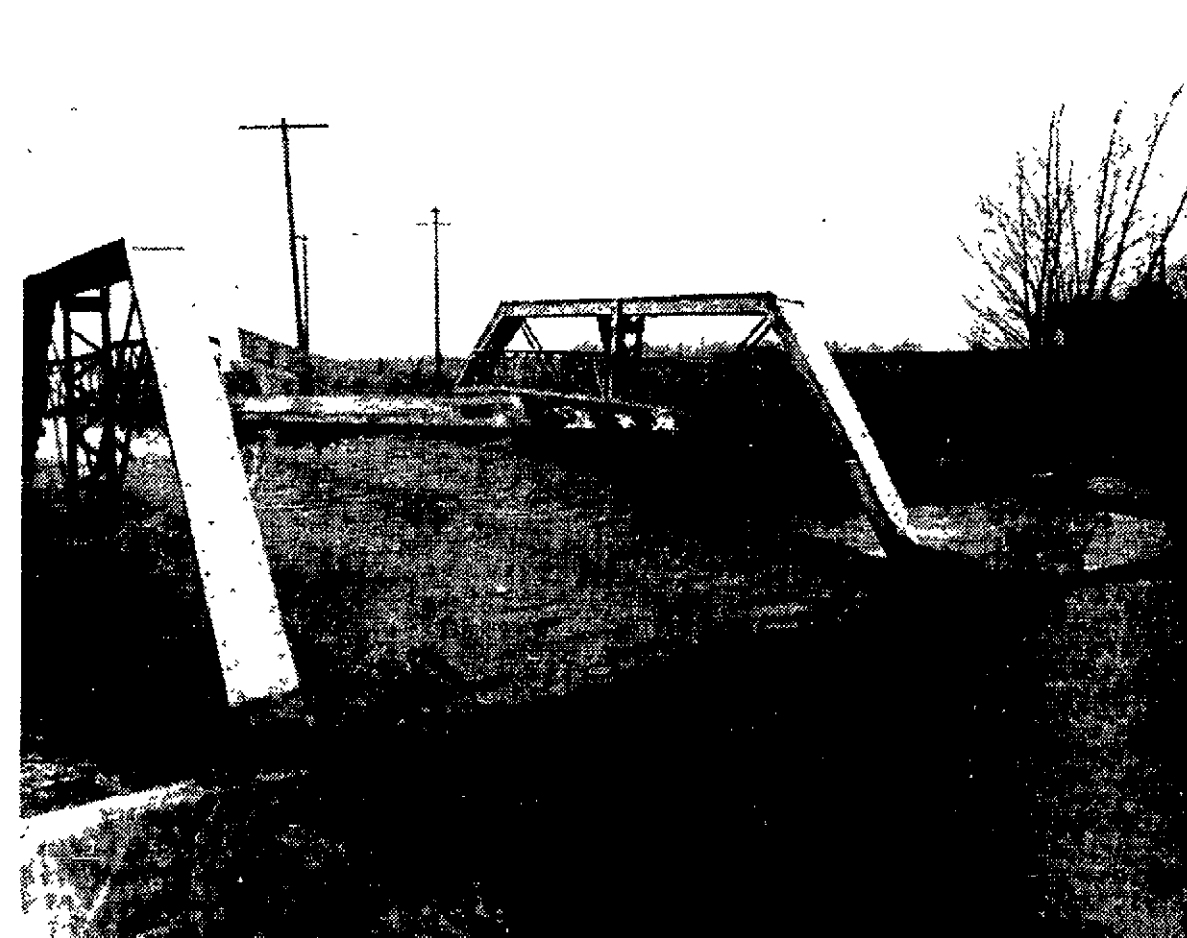

This scene, taken at the height of the blaze, pictures the fire as it broke through the roof and consumed the building. The fire, of undetermined origin, was discovered at 2:00 a. m. by a local taxi driver. Only the walls remained standing after the conflagration.

Lieutenant Colonel John C. Habecker, son of Dr. and Mrs. I. N. Habecker, 516 Ottawa avenue, executive officer, military mission division and one of three officers being presented Legion of Merit decoration at Quarry Heights, Panama. Lieut. Col. Habecker is second from the left and Mrs. Habecker is the first lady to the left of the women attending the presentation. Col. Habecker was later awarded the British Distinguished Flying Cross at ceremonies held at the British legation for his leadership of the 258th fighter squadron, U. S. Army Air Forces, on extensive air attacks in the Moguang area in support of British forces in the Burma campaign. The Legion of Merit award was tendered for services rendered in the Burma objective where Col. Habecker served as Gen. Stilwell's air officer.

At 4:30 a. m. on Friday, lightning struck and exploded the gasoline pumps at the Hintz garage about seven miles northeast of Dixon. Harry Hintz, who witnessed the explosion, said that immediately after the flash of lightning, a tremendous ball of fire seemed to rise from the ground carrying cement and pump structure with it. A blaze followed the blast.

Over six months ago, this bridge on the Nelson-Dixon road directly south of Nelson, collapsed and to date has not been repaired. Residents of this area have become particularly concerned about the apparent delay in construction.

A six-horse hitch of Suffolk horses, owned by Delbert L. Wolber, Dixon, R. R. 3, will be shown at county fairs throughout northern Illinois. The horses, having a combined weight of over 10,000 pounds, will be pulling a wagon which was converted from a World War I Red Cross ambulance.

On September 1, W. E. Wood, well known local C. & N. W. railroad agent, will retire after 44 years of faithful service to this company. Beginning as a telegrapher at Fulton, Ill., during August of 1902, Mr. Wood saw service at Ringwood, Ill.; Algonquin, Ill., and Lake Geneva, Wis. He has been the agent at Dixon since August of 1920. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are planning an extended vacation during the latter part of August and September.

"Boomer," one-year-old English bull dog, is shown here with his owners, Margaret and Dewey Burke, daughter and son of the Dr. H. D. Burkes, 1126 Peoria Ave. "Boomer" has won first honors at American Kennel Club shows at Rockford, Davenport, Ia.; Chicago, Albion, Mich., and Jackson, Mich. He will be seen again at the National Kennel show in Chicago during November.

Motorists, traveling this road, find it necessary to detour around the bridge enroute to Dixon. Plans for improving the Nelson-Dixon road, have been on the county program for some time, but to date only 3 1/2 miles of blacktop have been completed. There still remains 2.8 miles of rough gravel road which causes much inconvenience to Dixon shoppers from this portion of our trade territory.

By contrast, motorists going from Nelson to Rock Falls, can avail themselves of this splendid blacktop road which was completed during 1945.

A Thought for Today
The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride and arrogance, and the evil way, and the forward mouth, do I hate.—Proverbs 8:13.

I do hate a proud man, as I hate the engendering of toads.—Shakespeare.

Fuller Explanation
An editorial writer has nominated as "the prize understatement of 1946" a remark by Maj.-Gen.
Alden H. Wainwright before the committee. Shown the now-famous pictures of the now-famous Garson wedding party, at which he was a guest, the general said:
"As I see it now, it is something I would have preferred not to have taken part in."

Such military terseness would do credit to Caesar. But we agree that the comment is understated and, we suspect, not quite a complete description of the general's feelings. Maybe it would have been more explicit to have turned to poetry and the half-dozen lines with which Coleridge wound up
"The Rime of the Ancient Mariner":
"... and now the Wedding-Guest Turned from the bridegroom's door.
He went like one that has been stunned,
And is of sense forlorn:
A sadder and a wiser man,
He rose the morrow morn."

Toward Worldwide Industrial Safety

The International Labor Office conference in San Francisco, which has already put through a minimum wage scale for seamen to be presented to the world's maritime nations, now has another excellent job to its credit in its recently-completed industrial safety code.
This code is the work of technical experts from eight countries, and covers conditions found in factories throughout the world. It will be presented to a government-employer-labor conference next year, and will eventually be passed on to member nations for ratification. With the code will go what one member calls "the most comprehensive handbook on safety matters ever compiled."

Such a program as this should certainly speed rehabilitation of battle-wrecked industries, increase production, and add to the earnings, security and well-being of workers throughout the world. It is a pleasure to see such an excellent and much-needed step being taken, and an equal pleasure to observe the harmonious and fruitful efforts of an international gathering in the troubled world of today.

Culinary Suggestion

Considering the amount of steam that it promises to generate, it might seem that a more fitting title for the second Bomber test would be Test Boiler, rather than Test Baker.

Enough

New York.—By a strange process, the American citizen has been placed in the position of taxpayer to Britain, Russia, Italy and many other countries, his wages savings and estate subject to partial confiscation for the benefit of their people. The allowance that he may claim for support of his own wife, children and other dependents is below the line of poverty and admittedly was not regarded by congress as adequate for even the meanest existence. Beyond those deductions, the citizen must immediately begin to pay income taxes which then are subject to the demands of foreign nations.

He finds he is buying food for strangers beyond the seas before his own family is fed or clothed or housed and if he should insist on putting down a full, detailed, reasonable and provable account of the actual cost of supporting his own family beyond the legal allowance and should claim a deduction of that figure, he would be faulted by internal revenue and compelled to pay a tax on that difference, plus interest starting at six per cent.

On the other hand, even those amounts which are advanced to other countries in the guise of loans, bear, at most, only a nominal rate of interest, the effect being that our nation exacts a harsh rate from our own people while our opposite numbers in the debtor countries are either excused entirely or asked to pay only token interest.

And, if the citizen of, say,
Britain, through his government, defaults his payments, it is not even pretended that the creditors meaning the Americans, shall have any means of attaching the earnings of property of those foreigners in their own lands.

By contrast, if the American defaults his taxes, his government may proceed to sell him out, particularly if he has died and collect the deficit and the six per cent from the estate which he has tried to leave to carry on, after death. His moral obligation to his dependents, his wife, for instance.
Except in a few western states,
the federal income tax rejects the proposition that marriage is a material or economic as well as a spiritual partnership and holds that a wife's share of the husband's earnings is a gift, not a share. He may give her, at present, $3,000 a year free of taxes after an initial gift of $40,000, but, beyond that amount, must pay applicable, in part, to the cost of social and political experiments outside the United States.
But he must keep a record of his gifts to his wife and report them to Washington and should he fail to do so, upon his death these gifts will be regarded as part of her inheritance and will be taxed.

It is the habit of those who defend all this, to argue that $40,000 is an enormous amount and that a wife who has received $40,000, and say $15,000 in annual gifts of $3,000 each is rich.

She may be rich by comparison with a widow with no money at all or $10,000, but the income on that $55,000 at three per cent,
would be only $1,650 a year, subject, incidentally to income tax, and subject, also, to the risks of investment under a government which has made investment processes. True she might, and probably would, try to guess her own life expectancy and draw on her principal but that is a delicate problem of reckoning.

The old popular theory of the purpose of taxation was that citizens supported their government, propaganda changed this concept to the extent that many citizens now believed the primary and legitimate purpose was to sock the rich, and distribute their accumulations. Wealth, of itself, was condemned as somehow penicious and a menace to the poor and the government. Yet, when such wealth has been collected from the estate of a rich man, it is spent for the expenses of government, including, nowadays, the expenses of other governments and thereafter pays no taxes as it would in the possession of heirs.
Just where riches begin is a debatable question but congress made a political and social decision without economic basis in establishing the $40,000 figure.

Among the novelties of the last few years is the proposal that persons who are unemployed by their own decision not to cross picket lines are entitled to pay from the national and state governments. The amounts vary above a minimum of $16 a week but some unions seriously advocate a minimum of $25 a week for 26 weeks in one year. The possibilities and ramifications of this scheme are too many and complex for discussion here today but at once it will be seen that private political organizations, paying no taxes themselves but collecting enormous treasuries through taxes, would call strikes to serve their ends and then would shift the burden of paying strike benefits, their own ancient responsibility, to the public treasury. The tax-payers would have no right to examine the reasons for the strike and say
"this strike is unjustified and we will not pay unemployment benefits." Yet, in a family of low workers under one roof, made idle by an arbitrary and unjustified strike the income would be $100
a week from the government, subject to no taxes, but payable by other families, not on strike, whose aggregate earnings were less.

That the American citizen ever would be called upon to pay taxes to support others who had deliberately chosen to be idle or were made idle by the snap decree of a communist or underworld gang unopposed, certainly was not part of the pure theory of taxation.

During the strike of the United Auto Workers against General Motors, a political group, including Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, issued pamphlets soliciting contributions to a relief fund for the strikers with the inviting suggestion that such gifts could be deducted from taxable income as charitable donations. This meant that a taxpayer living on a small income from stock in General Motors, finding his investment jeopardized and his income reduced by the strike, nevertheless had to contribute to the aid of the strikers.

The new war veterans are not long home and have not had time or the composure to study their probable future as taxpayers. But time and experience will show them that the bill for their benefits and the gifts of the United States to other nations eventually will come to them.
They are of that age and they are so many that, as an age group, they will be responsible when the collector comes. Probably they will arrange extensions of the debt so as to pass most of it on to their children, but those who think that any present generation of elders will pay the bill are mistaken. We won't be here.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo

PETTENGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

INSIDE YOUR CONGRESS

THE RIGHT TO WORK
The Senate Judiciary Committee has reported out a proposal to amend the Federal Constitution as follows:

"The inherent right of a person to work and bargain freely with his employer individually or collectively, for terms and conditions of his employment shall not be denied or infringed by any Federal or State law or by any organization or whatever nature."

This brings the closed shop issue into a new focus. Does an American have the right to work —which is the right to earn his daily bread—which is the right to live—without being compelled to pay tribute to anyone to do so?
Is this a free country or not?

Time and again public opinion polls have shown that the average voter is opposed to the closed shop.
This is true even among union members, although by a smaller majority. Excluding those who express no opinion, the Gallup poll puts the adverse majority among the general public at 55 per cent and among union members at 55 per cent.

In the face of such figures,
many times confirmed it is amazing how timid our politicians have been in dealing with the subject.
For certainly if a majority of the men who work and belong to unions and know the score from the inside are against the closed shop, something should be done.

Two states, Florida and Arkansas have prohibited the closed shop by amending the ir State Constitutions. Other states either by statute or referendum have done so or are in the process of doing so. The amendment to the Florida Constitution has been upheld by a three-judge Federal court as against the claim that the Wagner Act makes the states helpless in the matter.

Until and unless the United States Supreme court holds to the contrary it would seem that the way for the majority to express themselves is by state action rather than by attempting to amend the federal constitution. It may also be done by nothing more cumbersome than a simple statute passed by congress at least with respect to all employment in in-

MRS. MARY E. STROCK
(Contributed)

Mrs. Mary E. Strock, daughter of Enoch and Julia Beede, was born on their farm in Palmyra township, Lee county, Ill., and passed away on August 6, 1946, at the Elmhurst Sanitarium, Rockford.

She attended the Mound school in Palmyra, later the Steinman Business College of Dixon, and Northwestern university. She was a member of the East Jordan United Brethren church. After the family came to reside in Dixon in 1905, she transferred her membership to the Grace Evangelical church of Dixon in Aug. 1906, under the pastorate of the Rev. W.
C. Heyl, and remained an active member of Grace church until the time of her passing.

She was a talented musician and taught music for a number of years. She was also a Sunday school teacher for years in her own and other churches of Dixon.
Mrs. Strock was a lover of young folks and helped a number of them to obtain an education and find their vocation in life. Although she never had children of her own she was a loving mother to many,
and a friend and neighbor to all in times of need.

On October 12, 1915 she was united in marriage to Otto E.
Strock to whom she was a faithful wife giving him the best of love and devotion through his long illness. Mrs. Strock passed away three and a half years ago. Her father, mother and brother George also preceded her in death.

The surviving relatives are the following cousins: Mrs. S. J. Lehman, Mrs. George Martin, Mrs.
Frank Shively, Mrs. C. Elder, all

American University in Beirut is Bombed

Beirut, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Officials of the American University said today that a bomb thrown from a passing automobile apparently was responsible for an explosion on the university campus yesterday.

The blast, which caused no damage, was interpreted as a demonstration of dissatisfaction with the U. S. role in the Palestine situation.

Bombs were hurled earlier in the week at the American legation and the British consulate in Beirut.

Ohio Bars Reynolds Path Here

Locals Face Test at Reynolds Field; 2nd Place at Stake

Merchants Try Franklin Grove at Hospital in Second Feature

The firing is all over now as far as the championship question in both the Eastern and Western divisions of the Midwest league is concerned, but nevertheless there will be several attractive features offered on tomorrow's schedule around the two loops, with Reynolds and the Merchants holding forth here.

Walton and Roberts & Hess are the champs, but in both leagues the battle for second place goes into the final week of the campaign still undetermined, with Compton and Lee tied in the Eastern wheel for runnerup honors and Amboy and Reynolds neck and neck for the Western's second spot.

Reynolds Ties Ohio

Reynolds gets a test tomorrow afternoon at Reynolds field when they face Ohio at 2:30 p. m., while Amboy entertains the hospital squad, winless cliche occupants of the Western division.

Reynolds, still celebrating their sweep of second half Twilight league laurels Thursday night on hit pitching, goes into tomorrow's encounter with a double victory motive.

First of all, they must win to retain their hope of second place in the final array, since Amboy faces the league's soft touch tomorrow. Secondly, it was this same Ohio team which whipped the locals, 9 to 2, in the season's opener, May 12, at Ohio.

Gave Walton Test

Since that inaugural triumph tomorrow's visitors have played in and out ball, resting in fourth place at present with a 6-5 record, but they're still dangerous. Last Sunday's performance, when they held Walton to a squeaky 2-0 win, is proof of that.

The sixth-place Merchants, possessors of four wins against eight defeats now, has a chance to better their standing tomorrow when they tangle with the Eastern loop's door-mat, Franklin Grove, at the hospital.

With Brooklyn's Legion visiting Compton, where they are expected to have their hands full, a Merchants win could shove the locals into a fifth place tie. Franklin Grove has a 1-12 record, West Brooklyn has won five in 12 starts.

Roberts & Hess at Lee

One of the classiest attractions in the Eastern circle will pit the champion Roberts & Hess club against Lee, tied with Compton now for second place with a 10-3 record. Had the R-H crew failed to annex the crown last week, tomorrow's clash would have been the top attraction of the Eastern season.

Elsewhere tomorrow, Welland (5-7) will be entertained by Sublette 3-9 in the fourth Eastern division attraction.

With Walton resting on championship laurels, Cherry (4-5) visits Harmon (2-9) in the only game other than the Reynolds-Ohio and Amboy-State hospital clashes.

Tomorrow's game between Reynolds and Ohio is slated to start promptly at 2:30 to enable Dixon's American Legion junior team to get in its full share of swings against the DePue American Legion outfit in an added attraction.

Finish Next Sunday

Tomorrow is the last regular schedule date left on the Midwest league calendar, with Sunday Aug. 18 set aside for the playing of games postponed during the regular schedule. That is

Danville Takes Lead in Three Eye Chase

(By The Associated Press)

The Danville Dodgers have replaced the Davenport Cubs in the Three-I league lead today. Danville whipped the Cubs last night, 8 to 3, to gain a full game lead in the race. The Cubs were shaky defensively, being charged with four errors, but outlived the Dodgers, 8-7. All Danville's tallies were made in the first four innings.

Although Springfield was out of 13-9 and made four errors, it managed to defeat third-place Evansville 6-5 by scoring single markers in each of the last three innings.

Waterloo, with its first division berth threatened by Terre Haute, fashioned a 3-2 win over Decatur. The White Hawks were out of 7-5 but the Comies fell apart with five miscues.

Terre Haute, only 2 1/2 games from overtaking Waterloo in the first division, belted Quincy 18-4 with a 11-hit barrage which helped bring 11 runs in the first four innings, one in the sixth and six in the eighth.

Quick Reaches Goal; Stranahan Foe Today

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 10.—(AP)—A chunky, confident former electrician's mate in the navy who doctors once said never would play golf again, today had what he had been seeking since his discharge, a formal tournament golf match with Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio.

Both Stranahan and Smiley Quick of Inglewood, Calif., the man who wouldn't take the doctor's word as final, won their upper bracket, quarter finals matches yesterday by small margins in the Western Amateur tournament, and faced each other today in a 36-hole match.

In the lower bracket Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane took on George Victor of Chicago.

Quick's left hand was broken when a pile of lumber slipped on it on Taiwan.

Record Night Show Sees N. L. Leaders Keep Pace in Race

Detroit Shades Sox, 5-4; Ferris Wins Duel for Victory No. 19

(By The Associated Press)
Never in the history of major league baseball has one team swept an entire season's series from another, but today the National league leading Brooklyn Dodgers are halfway towards accomplishing this unprecedented feat.

In 11 skirmishes with the Philadelphia Phils, the Flatbush flock has yet to lose. They gained their 11th straight last night in Philadelphia by the narrowest of margins, 1-0.

Last night's triumph enabled the pace-setters to maintain their two-game margin over the runner up St. Louis Cardinals who took the measure of the Reds 5-2 in Cincinnati.

Record Night Activity

The Cards and Reds met under the lights as did all the other big league clubs making it the first time in history a full schedule was played under the lamps.

Kirby Higbe turned in the Brooklyn shutout, getting the nod over Oscar Judd when Pete Reiser singled home Pee Wee Reese in the eighth inning after the latter had doubled.

Whitey Kurowski paced a 16-hit St. Louis attack with a home run, double and two singles and drove in three mates to help Howie Pollet notch his 11th victory of the season, tops for Senior circuit hurlers. Joe Garagiola, Card catcher, also homered, his first in the big leagues.

Red Sox Beat Yankees

The American league leading Boston Red Sox increased their margin over the New York Yankees to 14 games—their largest of the season—when they edged out the Bronxites 4-3 at the Yankee stadium. A home run by Rudy York with two mates aboard in the sixth inning enabled the Sox to overcome a 3-1 deficit and give pitcher Dave (Boo) Ferris his 19th victory against only four defeats.

The Tigers, paced by outfielder Dick Wakefield, who got five for five including a home run, moved to within a game of second place by shading the Chicago White Sox 5-4.

Midwest Managers Will Meet Monday

The managers of the fifteen teams in the two divisions of the Midwest league will meet Monday night at 8 p. m. (CDT) at the Telegraph offices for the awarding of the cash prizes to the winners in the two divisions and for a discussion of future plans.

Among the topics which must be cleared off the boards is that of the projected All-Star game, pitting the standout performers of the two divisions in a league classic in the near future, possibly Labor Day, at a central league city.

Another problem awaiting the action of the league's pilots is the completion of arrangements for the league playoffs, which will feature Walton and Roberts & Hess, champions of the Western and Eastern divisions respectively. The playoff series is due to start Aug. 25.

Considerable interest has been shown in the All-Star proposal during the past few days, and the matter will receive a full airing Monday night.
